THE WEATHER.

The daily record of the thermometer in this city for yesterday, as kept at C. W. Brandon's drug store, was: 7 a. m., 52 degrees above; 12 m., 66 degrees above; 4 p. m., 62 degrees above; 8 p. m., 57 degrees above.

ABOUT THE CITY.

Mrs. Clague has been ill this week with a bad cold.

A. W. McIntyre, the rustling liverman of Phillipsburg, was in Anaconda yesterday.

J. V. and J. M. Keppeler of Des Moines, Iowa, are visiting their brother, J. C. Keppeler, in this city.

Citizens desiring to have their trades and business enterprises represented in the Fourth of July parade, are requested to notify Charles Collins.

G. W. Goodwin, the well-known rancher down the valley, had a valuable set of harness stolen from his barn Tuesday night. There is no clue.

The 14-year-old tough who is suspected by the police of stealing a set of harness from Schroeder's barn Monday evening, has left Anaconda, probably for Butte, where the police won't take such an active interest in his evil ways.

Chief of Police Fagan arrested the notorious Will Keefe yesterday. He had two suits of clothes, two pairs of shoes and a coat and vest, all of which he had stolen. The chief has found the owners of all the property except the coat and vest, the owner of which can have them on application. Keefe had been shot in the finger, probably by himself while monkeying with his gun.

The members of the A. O. H. of Butte and Anaconda, together with the Robert Emmet Literary association, are arranging to give a grand picnic on the 24th of July, the proceeds of which will go toward building a hall in this city. The local division intend to put up a two-story business block, 50 by 120, the first floor for storerooms, the upstairs divided into offices and a large hall where the society can assemble, either on lodge business or give public entertainments. The place of the picnic will be announced later on.

Information Wanted.

John McKenna left his rooms in this city on the morning of June 11th, and has not since returned. As he has appeared to be out of health for a few days, his friends are anxious to learn his whereabouts. He is about 30 years old, dark complexion, and has a scar on his jaw. Has a dark brown mustache and is about 5 feet 9 inches tall. He wore a brown sack coat, dark checked trousers which were rather large and heavy, and a black soft hat. Any information left at the Anaconda postoffice or at the STANDARD office will be thankfully received.

Notice of Stockholders' Meeting.

ANACONDA, Montana, June 8, 1892.

Notice is hereby given that there will be held on Thursday, the 30th day of June, 1892, at 10 o'clock a. m. of said day at the office of M. Martin, secretary of the company, in Anaconda, Montana, the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Anaconda Mining and Smelting company, for the purpose of electing a board of directors for the ensuing year and transacting such other business as shall lawfully come before the meeting.

C. F. BRANT, President.

M. MARTIN, Secretary.

Attention, K. of L.

All members of the W. R. Morley assembly K. of L., cooks and waiters wishing to take part in the parade and picnic of the Anaconda Workingmen's union, will meet at Mattie hall at 10 o'clock sharp Sunday morning. By order of the committee.

Anaconda Workingmen's Union.

Members are earnestly requested to participate in the parade and picnic of the union on Sunday, 19th inst., and to assemble at their rooms at 10 o'clock sharp on the morning of that day.

For Sale or To Let.

A first-class blacksmith shop, with a well-established business, on the corner of Front and Hickory streets. The shop is replete with stock and tools. Apply to D. B. BIRAN on premises.

Notice.

All persons knowing themselves indebted to me, will please make settlement before July 1, after that date I will be obliged to give all amounts for collection. Respectfully, M. S. ASCHHEIM.

Notice.

Creditors of the Estes & Connell Mercantile Co. are hereby notified to settle their accounts at the office in the old location. Carroll accounts may be settled there also.

Free Lunches.

The Granite saloon proprietors have commenced the free lunch system. Cold lunches are procurable at all hours and hot lunches at night.

George Barish is the agent for the North German-Lloyd and Red Star steamship lines, which furnish the best accommodations for crossing the ocean at the most reasonable rates. He can furnish you with tickets and European exchange. Call on him at 414 East Park avenue.

The proprietors of the Leader have rented a store at 204 North Main street, Butte (opposite Bonner's), and will remove their entire stock.

For Rent or For Sale.

A two chair barber shop and two bath rooms in good condition. Inquire at Lon Burnett's, P. O. box 738.

Purify your blood now with Oregon Blood Purifier, the great health restorer. If you want a fine piano at a very low price, call at King and Kennedy's.

The Leader clothing store will move to Butte.

THE TROUBLEMAKERS.

Name of Anaconda's Lacrosse Club—Officers Elected.

The lacrosse players in this city, by daily practice, are almost ready for a match game with some of the clubs in Montana. Thursday evening about 20 sticks were on the swing on the grounds south of the Presbyterian church, a large crowd of interested spectators lining the sidewalks at a safe distance. The running and throwing of Dr. Macdonald, an d Messrs. Sullivan, Walkup, O'Brien, Clague, Maloney, Brownlee and Howard are first class.

At a largely attended meeting of players and admirers of the Indian game held at B. McGinley's club rooms the other evening a permanent organization was effected, with B. McGinley president and T. O'Brien secretary-treasurer. Alex Burnett was elected field captain and James Sullivan captain of the team. The executive committee is made up of the following admirers of the game: Dr. Spelman, R. T. Williams, Frank Fokett, Dr. Macdonald and P. J. Sullivan.

Secretary O'Brien is in communication with the Missoula and Butte teams, and he thinks he will be able to arrange a game in a week or so. As Anaconda has no ball club, the lacrosse games will undoubtedly draw large crowds. If no game can be arranged with an outside club, a game will be played next Sunday at the park between two Anaconda teams.

A SUMPTUOUS EXPOSITION.

Solomon, His Temple and the Queen of Sheba in a Circus.

The Enquirer, the Commercial Gazette and other leading papers, both German and English, of Cincinnati, are prolific in their praises of this new and most impressive of all spectacles, which, at an expense that would seem fabulous, the enterprising management of John Robinson's Great World's Exposition produce this year in connection with their myriad other attractions. There is no sense so vivid, so lasting and so conclusive as the sense of seeing, and however studiously we may search the Scriptures or other sacred history, the ideas that we may form and the impressions we may receive concerning the patriarchs and sages, and the scenes, incidents and events consequent to their time, can be but fractionary and imperfect.

To have reproduced these personages and events and placed with accurate effect before you; to hear Solomon reiterate his wise and prophetic words; to see in person Sheba's illustrious queen, and the pomp and circumstance of her surroundings; to view the great temple of Solomon, not by description, but by actual inspection; to witness personally the sumptuous and resplendent festivals of the great Solomon's court—these are the innumerable privileges which the John Robinson's Great World's Exposition accords its patrons in connection with the great circus, the menagerie, and the royal Roman hippodrome. The spectacle of Solomon, his temple, and the Queen of Sheba, will be displayed here July 7.

LOST IN THE FLOOD.

The Fatal Venture Near Stone Station of a Man Named Larson.

News comes from Phillipsburg of the drowning of a man named Larson. Last Sunday Larson and a companion named Bennett hired a valuable livery team from A. W. McIntyre to go down the valley to Stone station. At one point in the valley the water has backed up to quite a depth from the railroad track.

Larson and Bennett were cautioned by the railroad men in the neighborhood not to attempt to cross this place, but despite repeated warnings they urged their horses on until the water was up above the bed of the buggy and they were compelled to jump out. Larson must have been taken with cramps on getting into the icy water, as he immediately sank to the bottom, while Bennett climbed with difficulty on top of the buggy where he remained until a log was pushed out to him by the on-lookers. He tried to clamber on the log, and found several unsuccessful efforts. He found himself again in the water completely exhausted.

At this critical juncture a young Swede amongst the spectators plunged in to the rescue, and with great trouble brought the drowning man safely out. One of the horses was also drowned, and the other, after struggling in the water for an hour, landed in safety.

Dogs and Other Dogs.

Last night a number of dog fanciers were congregated in King & Kennedy's, and there were several tall stories sworn to. Judge O'Leary, after a great deal of urging, told a "little one," as he termed it, on his wonderful dog: "Gentlemen, I know it looks a little unreasonable, but it is an absolute fact, that my dog Shep is such an observing and good dog that he will not eat meat on Friday."

This "little one" reminded D. M. Carr of Dick.

"When I was on the Missoula," he began, "and about a month ago I bought Dick, one morning about 10 o'clock Dick came running up to the office corner where I was standing, and commenced to bark and dance around, occasionally looking or starting toward the river. Having nothing else to do I thought I would follow him and see what the trouble was. Dick led me down to the Missoula river. At the edge of the bank among some drift wood and in a lonely spot was the body of a man in a barge of decomposition. I found a letter on the corpse which told who he was, where he was from and all about him. I went up to the office, wrote a two column article with a flash head. Dr. Spelman immediately declared the convention adjourned."

Two Prospective Matches.

Thomas McGarrall of this city proposes to spar William Henry McCormack of Glendive 10 rounds, Marquis of Queensbury rules, at Anaconda park on July 10 for $350 a side. Both men are middle weights.

On Aug. 10 at the same place McGarrall proposes to fight Mike Finegan of Dillon for all the money Mr. Finegan will put up.

Notice.

Sealed bids for the privileges of lemonade stand, soda water, ice cream, lunch, candy and fruit at Anaconda park, July 4. Parties can bid on the privileges singly or all together. Bids must be turned in to Charles Collins, secretary of committee of arrangements, by June 20. Committee reserves right to reject any or all bids.

The Union Pacific railway offers special inducements to passengers destined to points beyond the Missouri river. Special care is also used in booking emigrants to and from all points in Europe. Consult their agent at general railway and steamship office, corner Main and Broadway, Butte, before purchasing tickets elsewhere.

B. Radfield will open the barber shop No. 8, Main street, (Murray's old stand) Monday, June 20.

For first-class meals at reasonable prices go to the Board of Trade restaurant, 205 First street.

TO-MORROW'S BIG PICNIC.

The Parade Will Be a Monster and There'll Be Lots of Fun.

Arrangements are nearly completed by the members of the Anaconda Workingmen's union for one of the grandest picnics ever held in Anaconda at Anaconda park to-morrow. The monster street parade will be well worth seeing. The fact that the committee have offered a cash prize for the finest appearing society in line has been a strong incentive to bring out the full membership of the organization with newly renovated uniforms and regalia, and the enthusiasm has not been confined to Anaconda alone, as a number of organizations out of town will participate, several coming from Butte accompanied by the Standard Drum corps.

The procession will start at 12 o'clock, parading the principal streets, after which people repair to the park, where they will be addressed by the Hon. Ralph Beaman. At the close of the remarks by the speaker a fine programme of athletic sports will be contested in. There will be dancing in the large pavilion both afternoon and evening. "Montana Charley," with his associate, "Buckskin," will give an exhibition in trick riding as well as performing some wonderful feats of dancing on a pedestal, in the performance of which "Montana Charley" has no rival.

Ample preparation has been made by the members of the several committees for the comfort and pleasure of the guests and who attend will have passed a day long to be remembered.

EARLY SPORT AT WEST POINT.

In Olden Days the Grind of Cadet's Daily Life Was Severe.

West Point was founded in 1801, and up to within about fifteen years ago sport was a noun of unknown antecedents and athletics of any sort, kind or description were scarcely dreamed of. The grind of the cadet's daily life was quite as severe then as it is now—more so, for he lacked entirely that great incentive to all work, that invigorator of mind and body—relaxation from obligatory duties. It was a never-ending grind with him, and gray-haired officers have said again and again that they would have given a bar off their straps to have had in their day the training of either foot or hand ball. It has been able to enter the service with something of the dash, the verve of these young athletes, none the less a soldier, none the less a student, but a living, pulsating man rather than a wearied automaton.

The almost absolute necessity for the relaxation of some game is shown in the following incident, related to a writer in Harper's Weekly by an officer who, though the cadets of the United States military academy, despised "plebes" and all other playing marbles. It was a touch of nature that made them all kin. It was truly pathetic, paralleled only by very similar outbreaks for relaxation among the soldiers of the civil war, and for matter that among mankind generally since man and war became contemporaries in this tumultuous world.

At this time there was no organized sport at West Point and almost no game known on the "plain" was "rounders," which was a very mild sort of play for these boys of vigorous physique and was not taken up very generally. Some what stirred up by a visit a year or two previous to the United States military academy, a "plebe" and a subsequent challenge for a boat race, which was not accepted, a spasmodic effort was made just about this time to create an interest in the game. Two not very enterprising fellows, too much obstacles stood in the way, and the matter was dropped, not to be taken up again until a number of years later.

Croole Beauties.

The patrons of Evans' opera house will welcome next Monday night the greatest sensation in the annals of amusement, Sam T. Jack's Croole Beauties company, the most stupendous novelty of the age, and the first and only attraction of its kind. Mr. Jack has enlarged the company, secured new artists from the tropics and the orient and introduced many new features. The Croole belle is assisted in the entertainment by the fairest daughters of the Nile, noted alike for their talent and their charms. The vocalists are pretty and vivacious; the dancers are skillful and shapely; the burlesquers are versatile and most merry, and the comedians are funny and clever.

"Tropical Revelries," the first part, reveals one of the richest and prettiest scenes of the sunny tropics. It is a rare scenic novelty, and has pretty nearly exhausted the resources of the scenic artist, though he has but drawn a faithful picture of tropical luxuriance. Sweet songs and sensational dances are interspersed with beautiful tableaux. The costumes are costly and exquisite. Novel specialties make up one of the most entertaining shows ever presented. Besides the gaudy and grand ensemble, there are vocalists, comedians, acrobats, dancers and contortionists. The entertainment concludes with a rare sensation in shape of a challenge dancing contest in which many clever terpsichorean artists participate.

IMPORTANT NEWS.

Tried, Convinced and Sentenced.

Fritz Grummel, who was recently fined in Tiffin, Ohio, for disorderly conduct, can boast of being the first man on record who was arraigned, tried, convicted, sentenced and committed by telephone. Mayor Abbott, who meted out the electric justice to the offender, has a telephone in his office connected with the police court, and adopted this convenient method of exercising his magisterial function to save a long walk through the streets. Such proceedings in this country would not be allowable, and any such conviction and sentence would be quashed.

The telephone has been of considerable service in this country in securing the arrest of criminals. A case occurred in January last, when a man named Denny was arrested on a Tuesday in Glasgow on a charge of having on the previous night, on the road between Hamilton and Glasgow, robbed a man of a watch and chain. On the Tuesday morning the county official telephoned to Glasgow, giving an information of the theft, and the pawnbrokers in that city were at once warned, with the result that during the day Denny was apprehended while making an attempt to pledge the watch.—Tribune.

Fete Game of Hand Ball.

The prize game of hand ball to come off in Gordon and Leary's alley on Sunday afternoon, June 19, promises to be an interesting affair. There will be six local players. A cordial invitation is extended to the crack handball players of Butte to enter the game, "Monahan" excepted. There will be a prize for the winning team in the shape of one solid set of silver knives and fork, one set of solid silver table spoons and one set of solid silver spoons. May the best team win.

Women.

The common afflictions of women are sick-headaches, indigestion and nervous troubles. They arise largely from stomach disorders. As Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla is the only bowel regulating preparation, you can see why it is more effective than any other sarsaparilla in those troubles. It is daily relieving hundreds. The action is mild, direct and effective. We have scores of letters from grateful women.
